Brussels, 25 February 2026

Dear colleagues,

EPSU expresses its full solidarity with the CGT and the CGT Ville de Lyon branch following the bomb threat against your premises on 21 February. Threats and intimidation against trade union organisations are completely unacceptable.

We condemn this attack and the wider climate of hostility directed at trade unions and all those defending social rights and democratic freedoms. Such actions seek to create fear and undermine the work of those who stand up for workers, equality and solidarity.

Together, we stand with you and with all unions confronting far-right extremism and its attempts to silence progressive and anti-fascist voices. Trade unionists will not be intimidated. These attacks only strengthen our shared commitment to solidarity, justice and democratic values.

Yours sincerely,

Jan Willem Goudriaan
